Collision on Big Four Near Peoria

A FREIGHT AND A WORK TRAIN
CAME TOGETHER.

CRASH WAS HEARD MANY MILES

In Rows the Mangled Bodies Lie Unrecognized by Those Who Knew Them Well.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 20.—(Bulletin)—The casualties in the Big Four wreck yesterday afternoon, have been exaggerated. Eighteen bodies have been recovered from the debris, and of the fourteen injured, two have died, making the total known dead at 20. It is not believed that any more bodies will be found in the wreckage.

So far as can be learned at noon today the fault lies with the crew of the freight train, No. 91, which had orders to meet the work train bearing 45 section men who had been picking up steel along the right of way near Tremont. Whether the conductor, engineer and fireman misunderstood the orders or forgot them entirely will not be brought out until the officials' investigation to be held as soon as the wreckage can be cleared away.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 20.—A score of men were killed and at least 15 injured in a head-on collision between a west-bound freight and a work train on the Big Four railroad, between MacKinaw and Tremont late yesterday afternoon. Up to the present time the bodies of 13 victims of the wreck have been taken from the mass of debris, which is piled 50 feet high on the track, while five yet remain buried under a huge pile of broken timber, twisted and distorted iron and steel.

On a bank at the side of the track lie the bodies of the victims, cut, bruised and mangled in a horrible manner. So far 11 only have been identified, the remaining being unrecognizable, even by those who knew them and are aware of the fact that they are among the dead.

All of the dead and most of the injured were members of the work train, the crews on both engines jumping in time to save their lives.

The collision occurred in a deep cut at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other until they were within 50 feet of each other. The engineers set the brakes, sounded the whistles and then leaped from their cabs, the two trains striking with such force that the sound was heard for miles around.

A second after the collision the boiler of the work train exploded with terrible force, throwing heavy iron bars and splinters of wood to a distance of 200 feet.

The following is a list of dead who have been identified:

Robert Kink, 43, Tremont; leaves widow and three children.

Thomas Troy, 50, Tremont, single.

Wm. Eads, 30, Tremont; leaves widow and three children.

Charles E. Myers, 50, Bloomington; leaves widow and five children.

George Smith, 50, Bloomington; leaves widow and three children.

George Harmon, 38, Bloomington; leaves widow and four children.

John Doran, aged 33, Bloomington, single.

John Smith, 30, Bloomington, single.

John Shaw, aged 23, MacKinaw, single.

John Bachman, 24, Danvers, single.

Stephen Cutler, 28, MacKinaw, single.

Twenty unidentified dead, bodies mangled beyond recognition.

The injured:

Chris Barr, Danvers, ankle broken.

Gustav Thiebends, Danvers, right arm broken.

Davanel, Danvers, injured internally; may die.

John Ghele, fireman, Indianapolis; leg broken.

A. W. Mastings, conductor; badly bruised.

W. T. Hartan, brakeman, Indianapolis; leg broken.

Conductor John W. Judge, of Indianapolis, who had charge of the freight train, received orders at MacKinaw to wait at MacKinaw for the work train which was due there at 2:40 p. m. Instead of doing this he Washington, Nov. 20.—Immediately after the opening of the senate today, the Cuban reciprocity bill, which passed the house yesterday, was received. It was laid before the senate. Mr. Cullom moved that it be referred to the committee on foreign relations. The matter of its reference was finally deferred till the conclusion of the morning session.

Washington, Nov. 20.—After reading of the journal, floor leader Payne moved the House adjourn till Tuesday, which was carried. On Tuesday it will adjourn over until Friday and so on until the time of the extra session shall have been consumed, or until the Senate shall have acted on the Cuban bill. There is a growing belief on the House side that the Senate will not vote on the bill until after the beginning of the regular session in December, and that the called session will remitte the regular one.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The house by a rising vote of 335 to 21, passed the bill to make effective the Cuban reciprocity treaty. The dissenting votes were about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats, but there was no record vote, the minority having too few votes to order the yeas and nays. The Democrats, under the leadership of Mr. Williams, sought to the last to secure amendments to the bill in accordance with the action of the Democratic caucus, but were defeated steadily. Mr. Williams made the final effort when he tried to have the bill recommitted to the ways and means committee, with instructions to amend, but a point of order under the special rule providing for a vote on the bill without intervening motion, was sustained.

CHOICE
Given to Murderer Who Preferred to be Shot.

Salt Lake, Nov. 20.—Peter Mortensen was legally shot to death in the jail yard here at 10:30 this morning. In Utah a condemned murderer may have his choice of being hanged or shot. Mortensen's crime was the murder of James Hay to whom he owed $3,800. A dramatic feature of the trial was the testimony of John Sharp, father-in-law of Hay, who swore that Mortensen's guilt was revealed in a vision. Evidence against Mortensen was purely circumstantial. Hay and Mortensen were Mormons.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Fifty thousand dollars is the loss of the Northwestern University by a fire which at 6 o'clock this morning gutted the fifth and sixth floors of the medical and dental college occupying the building which formerly was known as the Tremont hotel. Thirty bodies were in the dissecting room on the top floor. Some had been dismembered and all presented a gruesome sight after the flames had been extinguished, the water poured over them having frozen.

FOR HELP

Operator Wired, but Was Struck Dead
Before He Could Give the Murderer's Name.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 20.—W. H. Clendenen, a telegraph operator at Brown, Pa., on the Beech Creek division of the New York Central railroad, was found dead in the telegraph tower shortly after 8 o'clock last night. At 6:30 o'clock the operator at Oak Grove, Pa., on the same road, received this message from Clendenen:

"Send switch engine quick to me; I am being murdered by—" The wire opened and not another word came. A switch engine was sent to the scene and the body was found lying under the desk, the head crushed in. A bloody spike maul lay on the floor beside it. Robbery apparently was the motive, the watch and money of the operator being missing. Clendenen evidently was about to give his name as he was struck dead at the key.

Who Was Hanged
Today.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 20.—Despite the threats of 400 "bad men" that they would rescue Tom Horn, the desperado and condemned murderer, no attempt to attack the jail was made and the execution took place today. Horn who is accused of numerous murders and who was condemned for killing Willie Nickel, a sheep raiser, was resigned to his fate. He had a long talk with a minister last night who accompanied him to the gallows.

Horn was executed at 11:02 today. He was game to the last. There was no disorder and no attempt on the part of friends to interfere.

Colombian charge Closes Legation's
Affairs, Seeing He is Ignored by Government.

Washington, Nov. 20.—(Bulletin)—The state department received official dispatches this morning from both Brazil and Germany in regard to the new republic of Panama. Each of them indicates that just so soon as a regular government shall have been established there, it will be formally recognized. At the present time the state department has confined its efforts in behalf of the new republic to urging upon the junta the advisability of seeking at an early date an honorable adjustment of its differences with Colombia.

Washington, Nov. 20.—From various sources additional information in regard to the terms and provisions of the Panama Canal treaty has been obtained. Under it, the United States guarantees and agrees to maintain the independence of Panama. It is understood that this clause was inserted in order to set at rest all questions as to the recognition of Panama as an independent nation by the other governments.

The United States undertakes to construct modern systems of sewers and waterworks for the cities of Panama and Colon, and has the right to collect tolls for the period of fifty years, in order to repay the cost of their construction with interest. At the end of fifty years the sewers and waterworks become the property of the cities of Panama and Colon.

The Republic of Panama undertakes to compel the cities of Panama and Colon to comply with the sanitary ordinances of the United States, and if they fail to do so the United States has the right to enforce its rules and regulations in regard to sanitation.

The first five articles of the Hay-Bunau Varilla treaty deal exclusively with the question of sovereignty. In substance they are to this effect. In Article 1 the United States guarantees and agrees to maintain the independence of the republic of Panama. Article 2. The republic of Panama cedes to the United States five miles on each side of the canal and three marine leagues at each terminal, and also any other lands necessary to the construction or maintenance of the canal and its auxiliaries.

Article 3. The republic of Panama grants to the United States the right to exercise the same power and authority of such lands "as if it were sovereign," and to the exclusion of such power by Panama.

Article 4. The republic of Panama grants to the United States the use of all the rivers, streams and waters for navigation so far as is necessary for the construction of the canal and its auxiliaries, including purposes of sanitation.

Article 5. The republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity a monopoly of any system of communication across its territory by canal or by railroad.

The remaining 21 articles of the treaty deal for the most part with questions of administration. For example, Article 6 declares free for all time the ports at either entrance of the canal, including Panama, and Colon, and provides that no dues of any kind shall be imposed by the Republic of Panama on any vessel using the canal, or belonging to or employed by the United States. It provides also that the ports of Panama and Colon and others leading to the canal shall be free to the commerce of the world, and that no duties shall be imposed except on merchandise destined to be introduced for consumption into the republic of Panama and do not cross the canal. The Panama government, however, is allowed under this article to establish at those ports such custom houses and guards as may be deemed necessary to collect duties on importations destined for other parts of the republic.

To the United States is given the right to make use of the ports at the two extremities of the canal as places of anchorage in order to make repairs for loading, unloading, dunnage or transshipping cargoes which are in

ALLEGED CORRUPTION IN CITY

Will be the Matter Under Investigation—Great Uneasiness is Felt,
It is Said.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 20.—A graft investigation aimed at aldermen, city officials, members of the county board, county officials and even members of the legislature has been started. District Attorney Bennett appeared before Judge Brazee Thursday and read a request for a call of a grand jury to convene in the municipal court room, December 7, the object being to inquire into alleged corruption in the city and county governments. Judge Brazee granted the request. Great uneasiness was apparent in both the city and county buildings after the nature of District Attorney Bennett's remarks to the court was known. It has been a common rumor that some of the officials who were under suspicion two years ago escaped indictment by one vote by the last grand jury.

ZANESVILLE FIRE.

Zanesville, O., Nov. 20.—The west wing of the Lincoln school building in Euclid avenue, was completely gutted by fire Thursday.

The loss will reach $5000 and is totally covered by insurance. Fire Chief William H. Tanner was painfully burned about the face and hands, and had to be driven to his home.

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 20.—A charming widow who blushing confesses to "64" and an Adonis, who has just turned 75, figured in an elopement, because the children and grandchildren of each objected. The couple, who were John McCaughen and Mrs. Lottie Beach, came here from Racine county and obtained a special dispensation from County Judge Slosson, as in Wisconsin it is necessary to wait five days after procuring a license. The court heard the story of the elopers, and tied the knot, and now they are happy.

CHAMPION QUEER NAME FOR A BABY.

Seattle, Nov. 20.—Leon Edward Yukon Seattle No. 3 Woodpile Bartlett is the very large and unusual Christian name of the very small son of Mike Bartlett, the former Klondiker, who shot and killed his wife, the little boy's mother and is now awaiting trial.

The small bearer of the big cognomen was three years old last August, and notwithstanding the great tragedy which will ever darken his life, is one of the healthiest little fellows that ever lived, and has only recently succeeded in memorizing his own name, which was chosen for him by the crew and 65 passengers of a steamboat on the Yukon river.

Leon was the name chosen for him by his mother. Edward was for an uncle. Seattle No. 3 was the name of the boat, and the crew insisted on it being a part of the name. Yukon was inserted out of deference to the river, and Woodpile because of the fact that on the day he was born the boat was taking on a pile of wood from a big woodpile, 73 miles above Rampart.

The baby was christened informally in the cabin of the boat, after a dinner which his father had given in honor of the occasion to "all souls on board." It was in the midst of this festivity that the name was selected.

Washington, Nov. 20.—M. Bana Varilla, the Panama minister, accompanied by two of the Panama commissioners, Frederic Bord and Dr. Amador, called upon Secretary of State Hay this morning, the new minister presenting the commissioners.

After the interview the commissioners stated that the main thing was to secure the canal; that after that a call for a constitutional convention would be made as soon as possible that in fact they had cabled their government last night to that effect. At 2:30 this afternoon the commissioners were presented to President Roosevelt.

NEED OF SCHOOLS

State Commissioner L. D. Bonebrake Says That Additional Revenue Should be Provided.

Columbus, O., Nov. 20.—"The central question in the administration of schools in Ohio is that of raising revenue," said School Commissioner L. D. Bonebrake, after returning to his office from a two weeks' absence.

"This is of much greater importance than the question of whether school boards should be elected on the ward or at large plan."

"Aren't Ohio schools as good as others now?"

"Well, that isn't the question. They are not as good as they can be."

"Good enough in the public mind, perhaps, but not in the professional mind."

"More revenue means better pay for teachers, and consequently better teachers, also better buildings, libraries, laboratories and longer terms."

"The question of securing better pay for teachers goes along with the important one of establishing Normal schools, for which we worked so hard. If we are to have better teachers they must be paid more. The teacher is the center of the school."

"The trouble is that while the population and wealth of Ohio have grown, the tax duplicate has not increased proportionately."

CAPT. W. S. COWLES.

The President. The position was created for him. When Prince Henry made the grand tour Captain Cowles was one of those assigned to show him the way. When King Edward laid aside his plaid hat for the crown, Captain Cowles was one of the special envoys delegated to represent this country. And the chance to attend the coronation, it should be known, was the most highly prized that has come to folks in official circles in many years.

Captain Cowles is assistant chief of the navigation bureau of the navy. It is one of the choicest berths ashore. As acting chief of the bureau he signed his own commission as Captain. Soon he will leave to take command of the Missouri, one of the great new battleships. That will give him one of the choicest berths afloat. He has been in the navy since 1863.

The chemists of the Agricultural department have shown that ability to fix the nitrogen, which is infinitely abundant in the air, and apply it to the wornout fields of the world, will enable mankind to cultivate what is practically virgin soil forever.

In considering the practical side of the vegetarian question it should be remembered that at least seven-tenths of the population of the globe never eat flesh meat.

A plant at Niagara Falls is taking nitrogen from the air by electrolysis, but not yet in commercial quantities.

Commerce between the U. S. and Russia during the last fiscal year greatly surpassed that of any previous year.

MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, liver and kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease. S. S. S. is a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, mild, pleasant and harmless. Write us if you want medical advice or any special information about your case. This will cost you nothing.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., tells how she was permanently cured of inflammation of the ovaries, and escaped the surgeon's knife, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The universal indications of the approach of woman's great enemy, inflammation and disease of the ovaries, are a dull throbbing pain, accompanied by a sense of tenderness and heat, low down in the side, with occasional shooting pains. On examination it may be found that the region of pain will show some swelling. This is the first stage of inflammation of the ovaries.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

"I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—Miss ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

Another woman saved from a surgical operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read what she says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I cannot thank you enough for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. If it had not been for your medicine, I think I would have died.

"I will tell you how I suffered. I could hardly walk, was unable to sleep or eat. Menstruation was irregular. At last I had to stay in my bed, and flowed so badly that they sent for a doctor, who said I had inflammation of the ovaries, and must go through an operation, as no medicine could help me, but I could not do that.

"I received a little book of yours, and after reading it, I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now a well woman. I shall praise your medicine as long as I live, and also recommend the same to anyone suffering as I was."—Mrs. MINNIE OTTOSON, Ohio, Iowa.

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.

ST. LOUIS HOTEL RATES.

World's Fair Visitors are Assured Reasonable Living Expenses.

The management of the St. Louis World's Fair has compiled a very interesting publication regarding accommodations for visitors to St. Louis during the Exposition next year. It is shown that the established hotels of the city number over 100 and have a capacity exceeding 21,000 guests. Proprietors and managers of most of the hotels have voluntarily signed a guarantee that the rates prevailing a year before the Fair will not be increased during the Exposition.

The established hotels have been supplemented during 1903 by new ones with capacity for nearly 50,000 guests. Additional hotels under construction will accommodate 30,000 more persons. A canvass of the central districts of St. Louis along lines of street cars leading to the World's Fair entrances has given a registration of boarding and rooming houses, respectable in character, with capacity for over 15,000 guests. Another registration has been made of private houses in which visitors will be lodged during the World's Fair, showing rooms for nearly 15,000 persons. There are nearly 500 restaurants in St. Louis, and 20 of them can alone take care of 23,000 patrons.

The Exposition management holds the signed agreements of the managers of a number of places of entertainment that their rates will not be increased during the World's Fair period from April 30th to December 1st, 1904. The official announcement in book form, containing very interesting information for persons who contemplate visiting the World's Fair, is now being distributed by the Pennsylvania Lines. Persons interested can secure a copy by addressing General Passenger Agent E. A. Ford, Pittsburgh.

DOWIE COMMANDS

His Subjects to Sell Their Holdings and Invest in Zion City.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—John Alexander Dowie, general overseer of the Christian Catholic church, has issued a call for $2,000,000. The call reads:

"This is not my advice to you, whom God has committed to my care, it is my 'command' as God's messenger and your leader. Realize by immediate sale the cash proceeds of all your properties, invest in Zion securities or Zion land, and come with all your house to Zion City."

The general overseer declares that the need of capital is not due to a depression of the business of the Zion industries, but because the demand for Zion products is greater than the producing power of the present capital.

We'd better take a carriage if we do. Our carriage is a surrey, as are all carriages of Honolulu, a two-seater, one-horse surrey.

"Any particular place you want to go, gents?" asks Driver W. J. Smith, back No. 24: Stand Hotel and Fort.

"Oh, no," we answer. And then we do the stereotyped stunt of Honolulu by night with Smith as guide. The stereotyped stunt with one exception.

Chop Dol Lah, sailmaker, sat sewing a shroud,

A shroud for a Jay that was dead. He cussed at the canvass, because it was still.

He cussed at the beeswax and thread

He cussed at his needle, because it was blunt;

The Jay, for presuming to die And into the canvass the sailmaker stitched.

A terrible curse—"Mock-a-hi!"

face and your opponent vanquished, but the fact still remains that, after six days on an English ship, manned by British officers and tars, Chinese sailors and servants, with an assorted passenger list of Chinese, Japanese, Koreans, stenographers bound for the Philippines, muddled oafs, flannelled fools and other miscellany, the little old tag we call the flag, our Star-Spangled Banner, sending through the breeze at a clipper gait, betokening the coming of United States revenue men—well, the old flag looks pretty sweet. It's as good as a letter from home.

And now let us land

So this is the far-famed fish market of Honolulu! Well, the books didn't lie about it. They spoke of it as noisy. It is. And now to the postoffice, where we find all kinds of clerks and all kinds of departments necessary to the transaction of the multifarious varieties of races and business interests here involved. It's a Babel here.

"Where'll we go now?" you ask. Well, I don't know where you would like best to go, but, as for myself, you know, they wouldn't let Lum Jun land. And I've got a very important letter for Lum's brother, Toi Kee. If you want to go with me, come on. Over across the street there is the office of the Hawaiian Chinese News. Maybe they can direct us.

Yes, the Chinese editor knows Lum Toi Kee, and draws us a diagram of the streets, marking the location of the store where our man should be found. But we do not find him in a Chinese boy will help us search. Maybe he is at the joss house. What's that? Not here? Then back to the store, where we leave word for them to rustle our man up, and that we will be back in an hour. We leave Lum's letter.

See that $20 hat, that black, uncoiled shock, that string of beads, that six-fits wrapper lifted high over dirty bare feet? That's your "Honolulu Belle."

Here's another, squatting on her hunkers, just ahead of us on the sidewalk. She offers us stale flowers for sale.

"Ho-lo-ma! You be Toi Kee" All right. Hurry up, your brother is expecting you on the wharf, where he may talk to you over the ship's railing.

That is, when, after driving over one of the several bridges we enter a tortuous lane, too narrow to be called a street, boarded up high on both sides by whitewashed fences and overhung with luxuriant palms. At the end of this lane there is a high board wall, pierced by a wicket gate. And here my old Chinese companion, whom I picked up at the last store, alights. Excuse me a moment; I will not be gone long.

What'd I see in there? Well, I can't tell you all. But this much I can tell you. There was a meeting of our society, and I met there many influential and prominent Chinese of Honolulu. I was made thoroughly welcome, and by them was informed that business in Honolulu is not what it used to be. In fact, they say the city's prospects are not flattering. However, the business interests are adopting measures tending to reorganization of business methods. One of these measures now being put into force is to stop shipping sugar by fast steamers; for the fast steamers, making fast trips, buy all their supplies at San Francisco, Honolulu deriving no benefit from that source. So, sugar is being given to slow steamers and sailing vessels, which buy their stores in Honolulu. And like measures are being projected.

"Excuse me, mister," says Driver Smith, as we pay him off at the wharf. "Excuse me, but that's the closest I ever seen a carriage drive up to the Gee Gong Tong. An' it's the first time I ever seen a white man go through that gate, let alone at night. And, say, did you know that old feller that was with you's rich? Why, I've known him for many a year. He's got a Kanak wife an' children, too. I don't know whether it's so or not, but they say he's worth anywhere from $25,000 up."

In the morning Lum's brother came down to the wharf, and Lum talked to him over the rail. I have an idea Lum scolded his brother scandalously. If he did, he had a perfect right to do so, as he is older than his brother. I know Lum got pretty mad, because he cussed in "American." And once he must have been furious, because he forgot his Chinese tongue altogether and said, "Now, dog-rone you! Toi Kee, you be brother for me. I tell'm you. You save'm money quick. Come back China quick! You mamma die. You say of man now. You hear me. Toi Kee! I tell'm you! Sabe?"

At Honolulu 120 Japs and 45 Chinese took passage. Up to that time little Ah Hoon, of San Francisco, was our only steerage baby. Now there are many. Several of the Jap babies are motherless, and their slant-eyed papas are looking after them. The crown of the Jap baby's head is shaved, and all around the edges, too, leaving a black ring of hair that looks like a warped washer. A polka-dot, producing a flower-like look at the back of the neck is much sought after. An educated Jap interpreted for me when I asked its significance, and the mother's reply was, "It makes the baby look cute."

Aunt Dinah's OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea
FOR MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.
Every woman who has a daughter knows well the anxiety and worry which always comes at that period of life when girlhood merges into womanhood.
AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA HERB TEA is of the greatest assistance to nature in bringing about this change without disturbing the natural functions of the system. It will keep the roses in a girl's cheeks. It is a strengthening tonic and prevents that tendency to decline which so often endangers the lives of girls at this critical point in development.
This Herb Tea is likewise of corresponding value and assistance to mothers and matrons at the end of this period. The use of the Tea will, at the time of the change of life, prevent endless pain and worry. A woman will enter the "evening of life" with scarcely the knowledge that the change has occurred.
Try this Tea and profit by the experience of many grateful women who have tested its merits.

IN COURT
PLAINTIFF FELL TO THE FLOOR UNCONSCIOUS.
Great Excitement Caused in Squire T. L. King's Court at Noon on Friday.
A sensation occurred just before the noon adjournment in Squire T. L. King's court Friday, and those who witnessed it were greatly excited for a time.
The case of John Cosgrove Jr., vs. Albert Savage, a suit for money was being tried, and Attorney J. V. Hilliard was summing up the evidence in an argument for the defendant, Attorney B. R. Nott having concluded his argument for Cosgrove.
The plaintiff was sitting in his chair apparently very much interested in the proceedings, when without a moment's warning, Cosgrove got up from his chair, swayed back and forth several times, reeled and fell heavily to the floor, in an unconscious condition. Almost a panic seemed to seize the attorneys and spectators, but a physician was called, Dr. Dalton Miller responding. It was feared Cosgrove was dead, or would die before the doctor arrived, although he came as quickly as possible.
Restoratives were administered to the patient and he soon recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home. The doctor said that Cosgrove's sudden illness was due to acute Bright's disease.

LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHT BATTLE FOR THE CHAMPONSHIP

GEO. GARDNER IN HIS PECULIAR CROUCH

"THE 'GRAND OLD MAN' OF PUGILISM."

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 21.—What should be the best battle of many moons is that scheduled for Nov. 24 between Bob Fitzsimmons and George Gardner. Old age against youth, cunning against strength, generalship against speed, headwork and a wallop against a wallop—which will win?
The pair will fight for the light heavyweight championship before the Yosemite club, of this city. Both men are training here, Fitzsimmons on the beach and Gardner at Alameda. Interest in the fight is intense and it will attract a large crowd.
The mill will determine whether the grand old man of the ring has gone back, or whether at 40 he is the acme of manly vigor, strength and skill that has made him the most feared of all fighters.
Gardner is young with a string of victories. He beat Carter and Root by going to them all the time, plunging fiercely, sending home piling driving blows that put them on queer street. His long suit is to keep his opponent going all the time, never giving him a chance to get set.
Thus he has won his victories, content to take a smash in order to return one, but getting out of trouble because of his fierceness, which prevented his opponent from delivering a blow with full speed, because Gardner was always on top of him.
In Fitzsimmons he will find a man who likes to have the fight carried to him. The old man has often said he could knock out any man who would bring the fight to him. Fitzsimmons' advantage lies in his cunning, his ring generalship, long reach, lightning footwork, ability to take punishment and still retain the punch that takes down the money.
Much alike in Proportion.

owners arising from the construction of the canal shall consist of two persons nominated by the President of the United States and two by the Government of Panama, and that in case of disagreement the two Governments shall appoint an umpire to render the decision.
It has been decided that the treaty shall next be ratified at Panama. The commission, which arrived here late last night, will sail December 1 for that state, arriving there on the 17th. It is expected that between that date and December 10 the treaty will be ratified.
Dr. Thomas Herran, the Colombian Charge, and Senior Brigand, the Colombian Consul General at New York are winding up the affairs of the Colombian Legation here preparatory to its closure. From the present course of events Dr. Herran feels that the closing of his legation is only a question of time. He has been apparently ignored by his Government, which has refused to answer his cablegrams or advise him at all regarding the isthmian situation.
The State Department has received a cablegram from Minister Beaupre dated Bogota, two days ago, saying that the excitement was abating. Minister Beaupre also stated that he was finding great difficulty in convincing the Colombian Government that the United States meant what it said regarding its action toward the isthmian republic.
The Colombian Government will protect the American Legation and citizens in Bogota. There is no fear of a demonstration against them.

PETER STREAR
CAPTURED BY CHIEF SHERIDAN AND OFFICER CARROLL.
Young Man is Wanted on Charge of Assault and Robbery in September Last.
Chief of Police James Sheridan received a tip Thursday that Pete Strear, a young man who has had considerable trouble with the police in times past, was in Newark. Strear was wanted on a charge of assaulting a man named Wierick on September 13, and taking $12 from him. Since that time Strear has been at large and the police have exhausted every means known to them to effect his capture. Every clue has been followed, and no effort has been spared to land the man. On one occasion Chief Sheridan heard that he was in Columbus, and was in the habit of visiting a certain barroom in the "bad lands." With Officer Hager he went to that city, and getting a room over the saloon attached to the resort, they spent four hours one Saturday night watching through a hole in the ceiling every arrival at the saloon, but their man did not show up.
The Chief when he heard that Strear was in Newark Thursday, resolved that he would take no chances, and he detailed Officer Pat Carroll to work with him to land the young man. The two officers followed Strear's movements until he was located at 120 Walnut street, and they set a watch on this house. About two o'clock their vigilance was rewarded, and Strears came out of the house. Sheridan and Carroll then closed in on him, but he was warned of their approach by neighbors, who seemed to want the fellow to escape. As the officers jumped the fence, the Chief pulled his "gun" and called to Streas's to stop, as he had started to run. The fugitive turned and found himself "covered," and immediately surrendered.
Officer Carroll clapped the "nippers" on him and he was taken to the city prison and locked up. The work of the officers was most judicious and commendable.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 20.—The United States is moving to open up to the commerce of the world another port in the hermit kingdom of Korea.

Quite as Satisfactory.
"I want to ask you something, Grace," said the beautiful heiress. "What is it, Duckie?" the duke inquired.
"Would you object if I should request the minister to omit the word 'obey' from the service when we are married?"
"Certainly not. He can just make it 'love, honor and supply'!"—Chicago Record-Herald.
To Get Rid of Rats.
After all other remedies fail, there still remains a way of getting rid of rats, and that is by depriving them of water. They can live for a very long time without food and when hard pressed will not hesitate to eat each other, but no rat can go twenty-four hours without drink. Therefore if every possible means of obtaining water is taken from the rats they will desert the vicinity.
Very Pathetic.
"What can be more pathetic," said the sentimental woman, "than a man who has loved and lost?"
"Well," replied the man of experience, "a fellow who has bet on a sure thing and lost cuts quite a figure in the pathetic line."—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE DREADED CLANG
of the ambulance bell that is so frequently heard could be frequently obviated, remarked the Romoc man.
You see it is just this way, nine out of ten people who are overcome by fainting spells, vertigo, weakness, palpitation of the heart and many other ills that cause unconsciousness are the victims of indigestion.
Indigestion is not always indicated by severe pains in the stomach. It is such symptoms as I have described above that indicate its presence and are often the first warning that the stomach does not work right.
If more people would only take that greatest of Nature's remedies, Romoc, there could be less stomach disorders. Like all of Nature's remedies, Romoc acts directly on the seat of the trouble. No harm ever follows its use as is the case when remedies containing injurious drugs and alcohol are resorted to.
Romoc tones up this great life centre of the body, and what is more, it purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves and creates a healthy, normal appetite.
Won't you please buy a bottle of Romoc, on my assurance that it will do you good and you will become one of the many in this city who advocate the use of this harmless yet potent medicine.

THE CAUSE OF YOUNG SPICER'S CONDITION.

According to the Father Who Arrived From Trinway, Friday to Take His Son Back Home

W. M. Spicer, the father of Charles Spicer, who was taken away from the St. Paul's Lutheran church Wednesday night and locked up in the city prison, for safe keeping, came to Newark Friday morning from his home in Trinway, where for 21 years he has been keeper of the Pan Handle depot building, and had a conference with his son, and will take him to his home.

Mr. Spicer said that all that was the matter with his son was drinking and that whiskey had the effect on him of making him crazy.

The young man was all right Friday morning, but on Thursday exhibited many signs of insanity and endeavored during the day to borrow a pocket knife from the prisoners with which to end his life. He was not successful, however, but the police have no fear that he would have carried out his expressed intention, and are inclined to look upon his two desperate(?) attempts at drowning himself in the bath tub at the Park Hotel, as a "bluff."

A mistake was made in saying that Mrs. Brougher was janitress of the Lutheran church. It is one of Mrs. Brougher's sons who acts in capacity of janitor.

WEDDING

Of Miss Claren O'Bannon and Mr. James H. Timmons Takes Place in Holiday Season.

At a card party given by Misses Florence and Jessie Gorsuch in Zanesville, this week, the formal announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Claren O'Bannon to Mr. James H. Timmons. The wedding is to take place about the holiday season.

This announcement will interest many Newark people as Miss O'Bannon is well known in society circles here. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas O'Bannon, a prominent farmer and land owner of near Nashport. The young woman frequently visits in Newark, and by her charming personality has become a general favorite at the social functions which she graces.

BEAUTY

Was Destroyed by Ill Health and Mrs. Brannen Killed Herself With Chloroform.

Chicago, Nov. 20—Because her face had been marred by ill health Mrs. Lulu W. Brannen killed herself by the use of chloroform in the Del Prado hotel.

This reason for the suicide developed at the coroner's inquest Mrs. Brannen was the wife of a wealthy citizen of Denver, and up to four years ago she reigned among the belles of Denver society. She felt the loss of her beauty deeply, and last October came to Chicago and placed herself in the hands of a "beauty doctor." At the hotel her face was covered by a veil.

"Must I always be the veiled woman? Will people always stare at my face because it is ugly, just as they were once attracted by my beauty?" This plaint burst from the afflicted woman recently, according to her maid. On another occasion she said to an uncle living in Chicago: "Death is preferable to life in this condition."

The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Mrs. Brannen committed suicide while insane. Mr. Brannen arrived from Denver and took charge of the body.
